

We are In Aisle Eight

A 5-piece eclectic rock band that makes music for people who listen to everything

“These five longtime friends are on the cusp of making a huge splash into the local Seattle scene.”
– Collin Lee Johnson (Respect My Region)

About The Band

Ask anybody what their favorite genre of music is, and 8 out of 10 will tell you they listen to a little bit of everything. From alternative rock, to hip-hop, to R&B, to blues, In Aisle Eight has got you covered. This band blends together genres from their many influences, creating a wide array of unique and catchy songs while managing to keep a distinctive sound.

In Aisle Eight has been creating momentum since their formation in 2017. Performing up and down the greater Seattle area, they have brought their talents to the Pacific Northwest's most notable venues including The Crocodile, El Corazon, and Neumos.

In their discography, the band already has a full studio album, a self-produced EP, and a handful of ear-catching singles including their funk-rock anthem "Arcade". With their second studio album "Start Acting Strange", set to release March of 2020, In Aisle Eight looks forward to sharing their highest quality work to date with their dedicated fanbase. It is safe to say that you can always expect an infectious energy level and strong crowd engagement when seeing these up-and-coming artists perform.
